Attorneys for Baton Rouge residents allegedly beaten and sexually humiliated at a warehouse dubbed the "Brave Cave" have filed a new federal lawsuit against city police.

(CNN) — The FBI in Louisiana has been asked to assist the Baton Rouge Police Department in its criminal and internal investigation after attorneys filed a second federal lawsuit against the department, several officers and the city in connection with an alleged torture warehouse dubbed the "Brave Cave," according to a complaint.

"The Baton Rouge Police Department is committed to addressing these troubling accusations and has
