SUPPORT OUR REPUBLICAN ELECTORS

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States and the congressionally enacted Electoral Count Act lay out the process for casting and counting electoral college votes;

WHEREAS, The legislatures of several states have authorized political party organizations to select and nominate the electors of their parties and the state committees of the Republican Party have been vested with this power in their states;

WHEREAS, Mechanisms have been created by several states to lawfully contest the conduct of elections;

WHEREAS, As Chairman McDaniel has testified, she “received a call for the RNC to help bring the electors together for this contingent purpose based on potential legal challenges that hadn’t been finished yet”;

WHEREAS, Litigation contesting the Presidential election was pending in multiples states when the Electoral College was required under the Constitution and Electoral Count Act to meet and cast their votes;

WHEREAS, Long-standing precedent (such as Democratic electors who cast contingent electoral votes after the 1960 Presidential election on behalf of then-Senator John F. Kennedy) supports the practice of casting electoral votes on a contingent basis to preserve legal remedies under pending election litigation;

WHEREAS, Leftist state and county prosecutors have weaponized their offices to investigate, harass and threaten Republican electors who participated in casting contingent electoral votes; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Republican National Committee lawfully and vocally supports the state parties, Republican electors, Republican National Committee members and former Republican National Committee members in all past, present, and future elections throughout the process of nominating and electing a Republican candidate for President of the United States and a Republican candidate for Vice President of the United States; and

RESOLVED, That the Republican National Committee will continue to vocally support individuals who lawfully served as alternate electors during the 2020 Presidential election; and

RESOLVED, That the Republican National Committee will continue to defend the right of the Republican nominees for President and Vice President to appear on every state ballot, that it will support Republican electors lawfully voting for the nominee from the 2024 Republican National Convention and will help protect any lawful elector who is harassed, threatened, or challenged by leftist prosecutors or organizations due to their participation as such; and

RESOLVED, That Republican National Committee members appreciate grassroots efforts to lawfully and appropriately support Republican electors facing politically-motivated litigation after casting contingent electoral votes and will continue to evaluate and consider alternatives for assuring that past and future electors receive necessary, lawful, and appropriate assistance;

RESOLVED, That the Republican National Committee will continue to support lawful Republican electors in 2024 and beyond and that there should be no reason for citizens to fear participation in the Constitutional process of voting for a President and Vice President.
