

Frequently Asked Questions

Do you take advance applications for housing?

Yes, we will need a copy of your PCS order and DD 1746 to process advanced application.

When can I be placed on the waiting list for housing?

Personnel on orders to any community cannot be placed on any waiting list until the Service member has physically signed out of his/her losing. Your signed and approved DA 31 (Request and Authority for Leave), and DA Form 137-2 (Installation Clearance Record) are the only way of substantiating this requirement.

What do I need to bring to register with Housing?

All your orders (PCS, Pin-Point, Command Sponsored, Joint Domicile, Amendments, TDY en-route, etc.), DA Form 31 (Leave Form), and DA 137-2 (Installation Clearing Record – for Command Sponsored families only).

Where can I live?

In accordance with USAREUR Policy Letter dated 8 March 2010, subject; Revised Housing Policy for U.S. Army Europe is 100 % E1-E6, 100 % of K&E personnel, and 10 % E7 & above are required to live in on post government controlled quarters.

Can I choose to live off post?

Based on the new policy SFC & above who are not Key & Essential Personnel you are required to live off-post after the established 10% is reached. SSGs may be authorized with strong justifications.

Is there a waiting list for off-post housing?

No, most off-post housing is immediately available for move-in.

What are my housing entitlements?

You are entitled to Overseas Housing Allowance (OHA), a separate Utilities allowance, and a one-time Move In Housing Allowance (MIHA).

What is OHA?

OHA is the overseas equivalent to Stateside BAH in that it is used to pay your rent. OHA is based on the local currency (Euro) and is paid out in your LES like BAH. OHA is based on your pay grade and dependent status (with or without). You can find your OHA rate at <http://www.defensetravel.dod.mil/perdiem/ohaform.html> - Under "Location," type in the "Locality Code" of GM231. Enter your pay grade and dependent status as appropriate, and another pop up screen will list your OHA rate, utilities rate, and MIHA.

What is Move In Housing Allowance (MIHA)?

The Move-In Housing Allowance is a lump sum flat rate that you will receive upon moving in to a new off-post house. This allowance helps offset expenses incurred when first setting up your household, such as cable, phone, etc. <http://www.defensetravel.dod.mil/perdiem/faqoha.html>

What is Temporary Lodging Allowance (TLA)?

TLA is the allowance that offsets the higher costs of staying in a hotel and eating out daily.

You can check the TLA rates on <http://www.defensetravel.dod.mil/perdiem/perdiemrates.html>;

How do I know whether I'm eligible for TLA?

Families must be on concurrent travel status to Government or private rental quarters in order to be eligible for TLA. Families must be in a concurrent travel status to the address of a friend or relative are not entitled to TLA, however you may be eligible for meals while residing with friends or relatives.

What is the waiting time for housing?

Typical waiting times are 0-6 weeks. Waiting times may vary during high PSC seasons.

Will I be placed on the waiting list for government quarters prior to establishing eligibility?

No; in order to be placed on the wait list, you will need approved command sponsored orders or PCS orders with authorized family members.

When may I bring my family to Overseas?

With concurrent travel order or after signing for quarters a family travel message will be sent authorizing your family to travel.

What if I just bring my family over on my own, without authorization for family travel?

You will still be entitled to OHA and Utilities at the with-dependent rate, as well as the one-time MIHA, and you will still need to in-process at the 1-Stop Housing Office for the off-post briefing as a Non-Command Sponsored family. You will not be entitled to TLA or DLA.

Who is eligible for Government Housing?

All soldiers on a 36 months accompanied tour are eligible for assignment to Government-controlled quarters. Soldiers must have 12 months remaining on tour to apply for as well as 6 months remaining when signing for Government controlled quarters.

What is my eligibility date and how does that affect my place on the waiting list?

Your eligibility date is determined by the date that you leave your last permanent duty. Sponsors will not be placed on a waiting list at the gaining installation prior to the Soldier signing out at the losing installation. Soldiers must sign-in at the new duty station before assignment is made. DA Form 31 (Request and Authority for Leave) and DA Form 137-2 (Installation Clearance Record) will indicate date departed last permanent duty station. Other methods in which an eligibility date may be established are the effective date of command sponsorship, date of application, or through an approved exception to policy. Families are not jump on any waiting list however a Family can be displaced by a Family that has a higher eligibility date. Example: John Smith PCSs and signs out on leave on 1 May take leave until 30 May and signs into unit. Your eligibility date is 1 May is this is the date you will be placed on your respective waiting list. However, if Billy Bob Smith PCSs and starts leave on 20 April and signs into new duty station on 4 June by regulatory guidance this family will be placed ahead of the family that arrived on 30 May if the two families are competing on the same waiting with the same requirements.

Can I lose my original eligibility date???

Yes, applications must be made within 30 days of arrivals or receipt of command sponsorship to maintain your eligibility date of date departed last duty station or date of command sponsorship approval. Beyond 30 days, or soldiers making tour changes, the effective date on the waiting list will be date of application.

I am on an unaccompanied tour, how can I change my tour?

You will need to submit a request for command sponsorship through your unit S1.

What is concurrent travel?

Concurrent travel allows you and your family to travel together to your next permanent duty station. All command sponsorship and joint domicile orders will be issued with "concurrent travel to Government-controlled or economy quarters.

What does deferred travel mean?

Deferred travel means that your family will not be traveling with you because there are no houses immediately available or you are having approved delays for your family's travel. You will have up to 120 days max to bring your family members to an Overseas location (BAH stops on the 121st day). TLA will be authorized.

If we do not want to live in government housing do we still have to wait the 60 days for the non-availability statement?

No, you will be issued a CNA statement at the time of your lease signing.

How long can I keep the Government furniture once I sign for it?

Officially you may keep the Government loaner furnishings for up to 90 before it you are required to turn-in your loaner set. Typically, until the furniture you are issued is actually needed because of shortages you may be allowed to retain pending notification.

How are the sizes of the bedrooms compared to bedrooms in the United States?

Typically, the bedrooms are smaller on upper floors because of slanted ceiling making it difficult to situate bulky and taller furniture in some rooms.

How many bathrooms are in the quarters?

All on-post family housing has at least 1 1/2 bathroom. Each SLQ unit has one bath with shower, toilet and sink.

Who controls the heating thermostat in the quarter, is it the individual tenant or housing?

For Government-controlled quarters, the individual tenant controls the heating thermostat in the quarters.

What about my electric appliances, TV and computer?

Yes, most of our quarters are equipped with dual voltage. We also supply two transformers for personal use for the length of your tour. Washers and dryer should be left in storage if possible, all Government-controlled and eligible private rental quarters are authorized washers, dryers, dishwashers, refrigerator and ranges as needed for the length of your tour as well.

Where are the DODDS schools located?

DODDS Schools are located on Main Post (Grafenwoehr), Rose Barracks (Vilseck), and Netzaberg. The High School is located on Rose Barracks; students are bused to high school from all locations. Elementary schools are located on Rose Barracks, Main Post, and Netzaberg. The Middle school is located in Netzaberg.

Where do single SSGs live?

SSGs and below are required to reside in unaccompanied personnel housing for permanent party. If the utilization rate for the installation is 95% or above in accordance with regulatory guidance a certificate of non-availability (CNA) to reside off-post.

I need to have work done, who do I call, how do I place a work order?

You can place a work order by calling 475-6324 or 476-2705 for Government quarters off-post 475-6596/7023/8783.

How many pets can I bring if I reside in Government-controlled quarters?

In accordance with local policy as well as regulatory guidance, you may bring two pets; two dogs or two cats or a combination there of. Request for additional pet authorization must be submitted thru the Chief, Housing Division. Domestic pets are not authorized in Unaccompanied Personnel Housing.

How long can a guest stay in my quarters?

Per calendar year a non-dependent guest may visit for a period no longer than 90 days. Request be submitted thru the garrison Chief Housing Division and must be approved by the Garrison Commander.

Are there restrictions on what type of dog I can have in Germany?

Yes, in accordance with host nation laws, the following class I canines are prohibited from entering Germany, and are prohibited from residing in government controlled quarters. Any mix breeds containing bloodlines of class I canines are also classified as class I canines. Pit Bull Terrier, American Staffordshire Terrier, Staffordshire Bull Terrier, Tosa Inu, Bandog, Any dog mixed with any Class I dog. Any Soldiers or DoD civilians owning a Class I dog will remove it from Bavaria immediately. No exceptions will not be granted. The removal will be at the owner's personal expense.

There are specific restrictions regarding class II canines. Class II canines may be owned and brought into Bavaria, provided the dogs pass a temperament test, at the owner's personal expense, and are certified as peaceful by an authorized German veterinarian. Any Class II dog that fails the temperament test will be considered a Class II dog and must be removed immediately. Class II dogs include the following breeds: Alano, American Bulldog, Bullterrier, Bullmastiff, Cane Corso, Dog Argentino, Dogue de Bordeaux, Fila Brasileiro, Mastiff, Mastino Espaol, Perro de Presa Canario (Dogo Canario), Perro de Presa Mallorquin, Rottweiler, Any dog mixed with any Class II dog. Class 2 dog owner must register their pets at the Office of Law and Public Order (Ordnungsamt) of their local community and with the post veterinary clinic. However, the temperament test must be completed prior to registration. Failure to register a Class II dog may result in a large fine and other sanction (removal). Bullterrier may not be imported into Germany from the United States or any other country. All Soldiers or DoD civilians who acquire a Bullterrier domestically from a seller in Germany must fulfill the Class 2 dog requirements.