

91-21

22 Nov 91

Feathery plume that caps the nation's beauty, Angel Falls hurtles three-fifths of a mile from the towering brow of Auyán-Tepui, a flat-topped mountain. The world's highest waterfall—16 times the height of Niagara Falls—was discovered in 1935 by U. S. aviator Jimmy Angel, who was searching the Gran Sabana for the legendary treasure of El Dorado.

CPYRIGHT □ □

A. CONCEPTUAL / GENERIC

Key Elements - Value

o	water	1
o	mountain / land	1
o	height / vertical	1
o	Rock	1
o	sparse vegetation	1