HELP NET SECURITY

Your CCTV devices can be hacked and weaponized

2022-10-27 07:10

In this interview for Help Net Security, Camellia Chan, CEO at Flexxon, talks about the dangers of closed-circuit television (CCTV) hacks and what users can do to protect themselves. More and more homes are being equipped with CCTV. While it can be very useful, it also poses numerous threats. What are the most common ones users can face? Video cameras, or CCTV, are becoming a more and more widespread feature of life. In fact, smart ...
